PRELIM ARRANGEMENTS

All pupils who are sitting Prelims are expected to be in the Hall (or designated room) 10 minutes before the exam starts. For exams taking place session 1 - 8.45am start - pupils should not attend registration classes but go directly to the Hall (or designated room).

Pupils who have additional exam arrangements should report to A6 ten minutes before the start of their examination. Mr Smith will meet you and issue final exam guidance.

All of the Library Booths and Department Bases will be used to accommodate senior pupils sitting Prelims.

Pupils are asked to move around the building quietly and be mindful that examinations must not be disturbed.

Library Access

- During the exams the Library will be open only to pupils who intend to study quietly.
- Pupils will not be allowed to use the library corridor to gain access to SMT, office or foyer.

Library Break & Lunch: During the exam period, when the booths are in use, the Library will be closed at this time. A strictly 'study time only' will be observed in the Library at all times.

F Scott

Art & Design: During the school day including break and lunchtimes, only students who are currently studying Art & Design should be accessing the department and in particular the ICT Suite. Students are only permitted to use the ICT Suite when they are working in another subject and accompanied by a member of staff.

Under no circumstances is it acceptable for students to come and go as they please and those pupils wishing to use the facilities should seek approval from the Principle Teacher or a department staff member beforehand.
